EVENT and COMMENT.

McKendree Church, the pride of the Southern Methodist at Nashville, and the finest house of worship in that city, was totally destroyed by an incendiary fire last Sunday week. When the spire caught the light was one of the grandest and most awe-inspiring that can be conceived of. It was quite new being dedicated last May. The cost was $30,- 000, and it was insured for $25,000. The spire was 235 feet, or nearly 80 yards high.

Harvey's fine trotter "Top" won the $150 race at Weldon N. C.

Daniel seems to have an easy thing of it for the Senate this time. His opponent Wickliffe was in 1858, the auditor of Louisiana and was convicted of bribery, stealing, forgery &c. He fled, living about under assumed names, until he was arrested and then paid himself out again.
The N. Y. Democrat shows him up beautifully as one of the smartest scoundrels of the age.

Prof. Tice says that on the night of November 13th we are to have the most brilliant meteoric display ever seen since 1833, when, to all intents and purposes the sky literally rained fire. The display for this year will not commence until about 1 o'clock in the morning, but the Professor says that the magnitude of the display will more than compensate for the inconvenience of the vigil.

Oliver Eades of Mass. has purchased the Bertha Zinc mines from R. A. Calder 13 miles south of Martinsburg in Pulaski, for $20,000, and will erect smelting works at Martins to reduce the ore, using the Altoona. This will make Martins an important point.

Postal Change at Mendota.
A new office is established at Hamilton Institute, on the route to Bristol with Wm. H. Smyth as Post Master.

We presume this discontinues the office one mile below at Mendota.
Hon. John E. Kennis and W. F. Mc-Clung rescued a negro from drowning in New River, near Hilton, on last Sunday. The Zionist says that after being rescued, "the dusky professed entire conversion to the Democratic party."
"Twere better for the 'nigger' had he drowned."—Maure (W. Va.) Register.

Rather an unfortunate admission, that you would let the poor dusky drown rather than reform—strangle rather than see.
Oh what a naughty boy indeed, To try and drown the unfortunate freed—
Man, who never did you any harm, But flung it down in the radiant barn.

Blazing Cotton.

OVER A THOUSAND BALES BURNED
NEAR RICHMOND—THE FIRE
STILL RAGING.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 28.—Intelligence was received here, to-night, that a fire is raging at West Point on the platform of the Richmond, York-river and Chesapeake R. R., upon which were 2,000 bales of cotton awaiting transportation northward.
The fire originated in the cotton, and the flames spread to the extensive wharves and adjoining platform.— One of the Baltimore steamers being at the wharf, the dummy pumps were put at work and put the fire in check for the time being, but at last accounts a stiff wind was blowing and the total destruction of the wharves was threatened. A steam fire engine from this city has been sent down.— When the fire broke out a heavy force was at once set to work removing the cotton, but the last report states that one thousand bales were then burning.

Memphis.

THE TRAINS JAMMED WITH RETURN-ING REFUGEES—RELIGIOUS CELEBRATIONS AT THE BREAK UP OF
CAMP FATHER MATTHEW—A RUSH OF BUSINESS.

Special to the American.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 28.—Yellow fever items have been difficult to find to-day. The only event of interest was the breaking up of Camp Father Matthew, which was celebrated by all its inmates marching in procession to St. Bridget's Catholic Church, where services were held, which were participated in by Fathers Kelley, Quinn and Walsh, after which the benediction was pronounced and the people wended their way to their homes after an absence of over three months.— Memphians continue to flock into the city, and all trains to arrive during the week will be jammed. The merchants are overcrowded with orders for goods, and business is booming. Nearly a thousand bales of cotton were received to-day, and when it will be remembered that none of our local packets have yet resumed their work, it proves that there is still life in the old land, and with the splendid crops that have been made in the country whose trade is tributary to this city, our receipts of cotton will hardly fall short of previous years, notwithstanding the serious drawback that was experienced by the appearance of the fever. To-morrow morning the Howards will relieve from duty all but two of their visitors.

Teacher's Institute.

A Joint Teacher's Institute of Washington and Smyth counties will be held at Glade Spring Depot, beginning Nov. 11th at 10 o'clock and continuing four days. Dr. R. Huer will be there and other competent lecturers.
Teachers of public schools are requested to attend.

A Sad Incident.

Yesterday after the steamer Havana had left Yorktown and was about twenty-five miles from that place, Policeman Skinner, of the Richmond force, discovered that a nurse in charge of a little six months old babe was on the boat by mistake. The mother of the infant lived in Hampton and had brought it and the nurse to Yorktown. In the confusion and hurry of re-embarking in the evening the nurse, with the baby in her arms, instead of getting on the Norfolk boat, took that for Richmond, and did not discover her mistake until too late.
The girl was fearfully frightened.
As soon as the boat arrived at West Point Adjutant Tazewell Elliott telegraphed to the mother of the infant at Hampton, telling her the child was safe and would be kindly cared for and sent home by the returning boat, which would reach there this morning.—*Rich-

MAJOR THORNBURG'S REMAINS AT OMAHA —MAGNIFICENT ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FUNERAL.

OMAHA, Oct. 21.—The remains of the late Major Thos. T. Thornburgh, killed by the Ute Indians at Milk River, arrived here from Rawlins to-night, Captain Dodge, of the Ninth Infantry, coming through on the same train. The remains were met at the depot by a detachment of the Knights Templar and escorted to Masonic Hall where they are now lying in state. In 1873, when stationed at Fort Porter, Md., Lieut. Thornburgh took the Masonic degree of knighthood in De Mohy Commandery, No. 4 of Washington, and while on duty there was one of its most active members.
Not until Sunday afternoon last was it certain that the condition of the remains would allow them to be brought here for burial, where Mrs. Thornburgh and family reside. De Mohy Commandery was then telegraphed, but too late to be represented by a delegation at the funeral to-morrow. In response they urged the Knights Templar of Nebraska to spare neither pains nor expense in paying a fitting tribute to their gallant brother.
Ex-Congressman Thornburgh, of Tennessee, brother of the deceased, is here and unites with old Masons from the East in the statement that no Mason ever received higher or more appropriate funeral honors in this country.

LIVING IN STATE.

The large hall of the Masonic Fraternity, in Masonic Block, situated in the central part of the city, is transformed into two striking apartments.
Entering from the exterior the visitor finds himself in a great tent composed entirely of American flags, which separate at the further side, affording an entrance to the second chamber, which is a gigantic army tent of sable hue, the base forming a triangle and the sides draped with white. In the centre is the catafalque, composed of four Corinthian columns surmounted with globes and roofed with dark cloth, covered with stars. In the centre, in a couch, upon which is a flag his Masonic regalia, sword and belt, repose the body of the deceased. Twelve waxen candles stand about the body, the one at the head being extinguished. About the base is a wreath of floral offerings and near the head of the deceased, wreathed in vines and flowers is his portrait. Vast throngs of citizens have visited the hall this evening.

THE UTE OUTBREAK.

The Captive Women and Children at Ouray's Camp—
The White River Massacre.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 24.—I have just arrived from the Indian camp on Plati-ner creek. The women and children are safe at Chief Ouray's house, nine miles below. They stood the journey well, and Mrs. Meeker has improved in health every day since we started. We left on the morning of the 22nd. The Indians seemed unwilling for us to leave until they learned what success Gen.
Adams had in stopping the further advance of Merritt's command. Meeker's papers were burned and what money Mrs. Meeker had was taken from her by Douglas. Their intentions were to kill the women and children, as the windows of the room which they first took refuge in were riddled with bullets the instant they had left it for a more safe place in the milk room. Mrs. Meeker thinks Susan, the squaw wife of Chief Johnson, and sister of Ouray, did more than all others to save their lives. She was as kind to them as a mother and their parting was very touching. Jack's band fought the troops and Douglas' men killed the agents and employees.

Agent Meeker was killed by Antelope and Wapattits. Mrs. Meeker was shot at while running from the house, attempting to hide in the sage brush. The ball passed through her dress and made a slight flesh wound in the thigh, about 4 inches long. The arrangements for the fight with Merritt's command were most complete. Two hundred Arapahoes had joined Jack and with many others from neighboring tribes, and had it not been for the timely arrival of Chief Ouray's order to cease fighting the names of Merritt and his command would have passed into history by the side of Custer's with the same epitaph, annihilated by the Indians.
The outbreak may be attributed to four things, repeated change and lessening of the amount of rations issued to the Indians, no band chief the same as Ouray here, a Ute Indian for interpreter unfriendly to Meeker, and plenty of bad whiskey furnished by the ranchmen.
Maj. Pollock is here doing all in his power to make the ladies comfortable and looking after the interest in the department in general.

Spurgeon on Talmage.

London Christian Globe.— Mr. Spurgeon said to him—and he, notwithstanding his unprecedented success as a preacher in this country, has had his detractors—"Mr. Talmage's discourses lay hold of my inmost soul.
The Lord is with this mighty man of valor. So may he ever be till the campaign closes with victory! I am indeed glad of his voice. It cheers me intensely. He loves the gospel and believes in something which some preachers hardly do. There are those about us who use the old labels, but the articles are not the same. May the Lord win armies of souls to Jesus by this man. I am astonished when God blesses me but somehow I should not be so much surprised if he blessed this man." As a preacher he has fulfilled his lofty mission worthily and well, and evidently feeling the deep responsibility which rests upon him as an ambassador of Christ. Our extreme contemporary, the Christian World, says: "With an earnestness of appeal and a power of awakening we have never heard surpassed, Dr. Talmage preaches the old gospel that kindled the enthusiasm of the restless and untutored apostles of Galilee, and at the same time elicited the zeal and influenced the heart of the cultured Pharisee of Tarsus." We have hitherto spoken of Dr. Talmage as a preacher, but as a lecturer he is almost without an equal. We could, if space would permit it, draw comparisons between Dr. Talmage and past and present luminaries of the platform, but will content ourselves by reproducing the words of an American critic: "He defies criticism.— The attempt to do anything but listen to those sentences, now short, sharp and ringing, and now drawn out with a plainness that will linger after his voice has died away; to do anything but laugh at those fine hits—that delicate sarcasm, mimicry that is the perfection of acting—or to feel so very, very serious when, in a moment, you are carried from laughing to a sober solemn reflection—the attempt, in fine, to be in anything else but in complete harmony with the speaker, and to acknowledge his absolute away, is so vain that it needs only to be mentioned and tried to show its power."

Library of Universal Knowledge.

Volume two of this very excellent, and from an economical point of view extraordinary work, is issued October 25th. Its 736 neatly printed and well bound pages contain a wealth of knowledge, covered by the alphabet between the words Arrindel and Biron, such as, it is safe to say, was never before procurable for the trifling sum of fifty cents! The 20 vols. complete, containing over 40,000 distinct articles, and nearly as many more incidentally mentioned subjects, with complete index, are sufficient of themselves to afford a liberal education to any one of limited resources. As a matter of course, they are finding their way into the hands of thousands of those whose love of knowledge has exceeded their power to buy it at the great prices charged for Cyclopedias heretofore published in this country, none of which equal this in the amount of matter given. Volume two will be ready early in November and the remaining volumes will appear about two each month thereafter.
The publishers will send a specimen volume, which may be returned if not wanted, to any part of the United States, for the price, in cloth, 50 cts., half in advance 25 cts., or on extra fine heavy paper, wide margins, bound in half Russia, gilt top, $1.00. Their catalogues of standard publications will be free on request. American Book Exchange, Publishers, 55 Beekman street, New York.

The great match now progressing between the Hon. Jno. T. Harris and the oyster as to which shall keep dumb longest appears at this writing to be in favor of the former.

Nordenskjold's Discoveries.

The discoveries of Prof. Nordenskj-old in the Arctic regions are full of interest from a geographical and commercial point of view. The explorer, in a recent letter, states that the coasts of Siberia west of the Lena River is a vast treeless plain. There are no islands to prevent the wind from driving the ice-floes down upon the shore, and the points where rivers empty into the Polar Ocean, and with their warmer currents maintaining open spaces, are separated usually by enormous distances. For several hundred miles in the vicinity of Lena, however, there are several great rivers, and a chain of islands acts as a barrier to the ice. Toward Behring Strait the frozen floes crowd closer to the shore, and are liable in the autumn and winter to bar the way to shipping. The most important of Professor Nordenskj-old's discoveries, from a scientific standpoint, is that of a group of islands off the Siberian coast. These islands, the New Siberian, open the book of the history of the world at a new place. The ground is strewn with wonderful fossils. Whole hills are covered with the bones of the mammoth, rhinoceros, horses, ur-bison, oxen, sheep, &c. The sea washes up ivory upon the shores. In this group is possibly to be found the solution of the question of the ancestry of the Indian elephant, and important facts with regard to the vertebrates which existed at the time of man's first appearance on earth. How came horses and sheep in a region now locked in the fetters of an eternal winter, uninhabited by man, not now supporting animal life in any form, and almost impossible of access? Professor Nordenskjold was unable to solve the question himself and he suggests that it is of the utmost importance to secure to send a light draught steamer to those islands for a thorough exploration. The natives seen along the coast belong to a hardy, jovial race, dressing in furs, keen at barter, but ignorant of the value of money. They live in double tents and expose themselves to very low temperatures with little clothing.
There is a great resemblance between the people and the Esquimaux of the North American Indians. Though armed with stone and bone weapons, and though wild and ignorant, they evidently have a history. They drove off the original inhabitants of the region two hundred years ago—the On-gkions, whose houses, places of sacrifices, circles of moss-grown bear skins and weapons are still to be found everywhere on the coast.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

The heart propels the blood to every part of the body at each successive beat, and it is easy to see that if the body is placed in a horizontal position the blood will be sent to the various parts of the system with greater ease, with less expenditure of power, and more perfectly than if one portion of the body were elevated above a horizontal line.

"If one portion of the body is too low, the blood does not return as readily as it is carried thither; hence, there is an accumulation and distention, and pain follows."

"If a person goes to sleep with the head a little lower than the body, he will either soon wake up or die with apoplexy before morning, because the blood could not get back from the brain as fast as it was carried to it."

Solid Facts for the People!

Nothing "Miraculous!"

The days of miracles having passed, the people want FACTS. It is generally known to be a FACT that

C. B. JAMES,

THE GENTILE CLOTHIER,

Has the Largest, Finest and best selected Stock of Mens, Boys and Childrens Clothing, Gents Furnishing Goods Boots, Shoes, Hats, &c., ever brought to So. W. Va. or E. Tenn.

ANOTHER FACT

Is that he has the Largest and best selected Stock of Men, Boys and Childrens Overcoats, ranging from $2 to $25. The latest and most unique thing in the way of an Overcoat is the PATENT ZERO, for which he is the sole agent for Bristol. It must be seen to be appreciated.

Which is recognized by the public is, that he sells the Best Bargains, and gives more general satisfaction than any Clothing House in the city.

Something that would seem "Miraculous" to others, but is a FACT, That he made during the last season $2,500 WORTH OF SUITS TO ORDER, and had only two mis-fits, and therefore, can guarantee a fit in all instances, without extra charge. He makes his suits better style, than better than any house in the city, and never substitutes a stock suit for a custom suit. Over 500 samples to select from. Call and examine before purchasing. He will save you money.

SALESMEN—Ed. Thurman of Lynchburg. John T. Powell of Blountville, Tenn., A. Mc. Sumpter of Bristol, and F. T. Anderson of Memphis.

TUTT'S PILLS

are extracted from Vegetable products, containing in them the Mandrake or May Apple, which is recommended by physicians as a substitute for opium, possessing all the virtues of that mineral, without the bad after-effects.

AS AN ANTI-BILIOUS MEDICINE

They are incomparable. They stimulate the "TUTT'S PILLS," invigorate the RELYING SYSTEM, and give tone to the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, giving the perfect digestion and thorough assimilation of food. They exert a powerful influence on the KIDNEYS and LIVER, and through these organs remove all impurities, thus insuring the health of the body and creating a healthy condition of the system.
